Quilt Exhibit Policy, Liability Release and Waiver

This liability and release waiver is executed by _____, hereinafter referred to as 'the artist', for Yerington Theater for the Arts, Inc., a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization, hereinafter referred to as "YTA".

In exchange for YTA displaying the art exhibit for Artist, the Artist agrees to the following:

1. That he/she has the authority to display this work and the authority to sign and execute this liability waiver.
2. I will deal directly with Roy Enochson or Susan McMullen with any questions or concerns with the display.
3. I understand that I can enter and display a maximum of two (2) quilts.
4. In the event my work is for sale and is subsequently sold, I acknowledge that Yerington Theatre for the Arts will retain 20% of the sale price of the work. I fully understand that it is my responsibility to ensure that YTA receives its share of the sales price. I further agree that I will be personally liable for the 20% and any cost incurred in collecting that amount in the event that YTA does not receive that amount.
5. I understand that items displayed with YTA are displayed as my own risk and are not covered by any YTA insurance. In consideration for the privilege of displaying the art or craft work, I assume all risk associated with such a display, including fire, theft, vandalism, and any type of damage whatsoever.
6. Having read this waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of the acceptance of the display of my work, on behalf of myself and my heirs and assigns, I hereby waive and release YTA, its officer, directors, agents and employees from any and all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of the display of my work, even though any such liability may arise out of the negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons named in this waiver.
